CURRENT ANNOUNCEMENTS:

- NEW RESIDENT ORIENTATION: New residents that moved in from September to current and have not attended an orientation session yet are invited to attend the upcoming New Resident Orientation session on 22JAN at 1315 in the Theater.
- TECH SAFETY TIP OF THE WEEK: Please be aware of phone calls offering loans or debt relief. These calls are often scams. Legitimate lenders will not ask for upfront fees or personal information over the phone. If you receive a suspicious call, hang up and report it to a trusted family member or staff member. When in doubt, don't engage.
- TAX SEASON IS APPROACHING: Keesler Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) services will be on site at AFRH-G on select days from February through April to assist residents with tax preparation services beginning on 11FEB. Additional dates will be announced soon. Sign-up sheets are located at Recreation Services. Appointments are 20 minutes each. Please be sure to have all required documents ready for your appointment. Questions regarding this may be directed to Eric Ball, Volunteer Coordinator.
- PUBLIC SPACE USE: Residents or resident groups wishing to use community spaces on the first floor (Community Center, Volunteer Lounge, Theater, etc.) must submit a request through the Chief of Resident Services and/or the Recreation Services department.
- BINGO UPDATE: To accommodate preparations for the 2026 Mardi Gras Parade, afternoon bingo scheduled for Friday, January 23 has been cancelled. Unfortunately, we are unable to reschedule it another day this week due to parade-related preparations happening in the Community Center.
- EYEGLASS DONATIONS: Please consider donating your gently used eyeglasses and sunglasses for recycling. The Biloxi Lions Club collection box is located in the Mail Room.
- PULL TAB DONATIONS: Pull-tabs are being collected in support of the Ronald McDonald House Project in Mobile, AL. Collection boxes are available in the Mail Room, with additional containers placed in the Dining Room for your convenience.
