CURRENT ANNOUNCEMENTS:

- GIFTS: Federal Staff and Contractors are prohibited from accepting money from residents. If money is anonymously gifted, it will be turned into Security. If Security cannot find the person who gifted the money, the money will be turned over to a general government fund (not AFRH or the Resident Fund).
- GOVERNMENT SHUTDOWN: Is over! Please be patient as our staff catches up and reschedules trips and tours. There will be a Wal-Mart Trip on 17NOV25, sign up at Recreation.
- GUEST ROOM RESERVATIONS: Reserve early, especially during the holidays. Please submit your reservation request at least ten days before your guests arrival.
- HANDY HELPERS: Will be on campus 20NOV25 from 0830-1100, the sign up sheet is located at recreation.
- MEAL TICKETS: Are sold in Administration during normal business hours, please purchase meal tickets in advance for guests visiting outside of normal business hours, who would like to enjoy a meal (or meals) with you.
- SECURITY: The contractor continues to work on upgrading our door lock system throughout the facility.
- VETERANS DAY: The Veterans Day Open House will not be held on 07NOV25. AFRH will host a resident showcase “Christmas Bazaar” on SATURDAY – 13DEC25 from 0900 to 1130. Artists who requested tables for Veterans Day, please confirm whether or not you still want a table for the bazaar with Nicole Kelly in person or via email at Nicole.kelly@afrh.gov
- VISITORS: Please let the gate know if you have company coming, call 228-897-4502 to notify the gate guards know you have authorized either food, friends or family, to prevent them from being turned away.

The speakers in the theater are working again, please do not touch or adjust any of the knobs or switches on any audio visual equipment (this also applies to the Community Center). Repairs are costly, and prevents residents from having enjoyable audio experiences.
