Armed Forces Retirement Home Selects
New Deputy Chief Operating Officer

The Armed Forces Retirement Home announced the selection of Mr. Daniel M. Coviello Jr. as its Deputy Chief Operating Officer (DCOO), effective Sept. 13, 2022. Mr. Coviello, a retired Captain with the United States Public Health Service Commissioned Corps (USPHS), took the oath of office yesterday for his assignment as the AFRH DCOO with responsibilities to include; serving as the agency’s second-in-command and chief of staff, management of procurement, contracting, operations and services, and external reporting.

During his prior service with the USPHS, he served as a Group Director for multiple regions overseeing the Philadelphia and Atlanta offices for the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services in the innovation and financial management group, and provided contractor oversight nationwide. He also served in the Division of Medicine and Dentistry as the deputy director at the Health Resources Services Administration. Additional experiences included the Program Director for the Center of Behavioral Health and Statistical Quality at the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration. He was a Deputy Branch Chief at the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention in Atlanta, and served as the Chief of staff in the Office of Security and Strategic Information, DC in the Office of the Secretary at the Department of Health and Human Services. Mr. Coviello also served in the United States Air Force where he developed plans for deployed hospitals supporting Operation Enduring Freedom as well as managed the service’s family practice residency program as the healthcare administrator. Prior to his government service, he was a healthcare administrator for multiple clinics and surgical centers. He holds a master of science in healthcare administration from St. Joseph’s University and a bachelor of science in health sciences and humanities from Drexel University.

For more information, visit: afrh.gov