Armed Forces Retirement Home Selects New Washington Campus Administrator

The Armed Forces Retirement Home (AFRH) is pleased to announce the selection of Robert William McAndrews as the new Administrator for the Washington, D.C. location, effective January 2, 2024.

John RisCassi, AFRH Chief Operating Officer, said “Rob McAndrews’ extensive experience, compassion, and commitment to excellence make him the ideal candidate to lead AFRH—Washington as we revitalize the facilities for current and future residents. We look forward to the positive impact he will undoubtedly bring to our community.”

Mr. McAndrews brings with him a wealth of experience and a proven track record in senior living management, serving most recently as the executive director at Sunrise at Fair Oaks. During his tenure, he oversaw financial management, regulatory compliance, and the overall well-being of the community and achieved a 3-year Assisted Living license. He successfully managed that community through the challenges of the COVID-19 pandemic. Prior to his role at Sunrise, Mr. McAndrews served as the vice president of operations at Retirement Unlimited Incorporated, where he was responsible for the operational aspects of eight luxury independent, assisted living, and memory care communities in Virginia. His extensive experience also includes several leadership roles where he consistently achieved outstanding results and received recognition for his contributions.

Mr. McAndrews holds a Master of Business Administration and a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration with concentrations in healthcare management, both from Old Dominion University. He is a licensed nursing home administrator and preceptor in Virginia.
